.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus directing R-1 to R-3 to extend all protection to life and property of Petitioners from R-4, R-5 their men and agents as they are threatening to dispossess the Petitioners from the respective plots comprised in Sy.No.88, 89, 90 and 97 situated at Karmanghat Village, Saroornagar Mandal, R.R. District and not to neglect their duty so as to cause imperil to the personal security of Petitioners and shall attend to their grievance in accordance with law in the interest of justice.

Counsel for the Petitioners: MR.T.MOHAN RAO

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 to 3: GP FOR HOME

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.4 and 5: ---

The Court at the admission stage made the following:

ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

The petitioners state that in view of the interference by the anti-social elements, they made a complaint on 28.09.2004 to the Station House Officer, P.S. L.B.Nagar, R.R.District-third respondent requesting to grant necessary Police protection to them and other land owners in Survey Nos.88, 89, 90 and 97 situated at Karmanghat village, Saroornagar Mandal, R.R.District. Though the said complaint was received by the third respondent, protection as sought for has not been provided so far. Hence, this writ petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader and on a perusal of the record, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with a direction to the third respondent to consider the representation of the petitioners dated 28.09.2004 and to take the necessary action in accordance with law expeditiously.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
